

Contribution regulations as of 02 March 2016

OR.NET registered association.

§ 1 - Contribution scale

The membership fees for associate and full memberships depend on the number of employees or the amount of annual sales.

This information is collected by self-declaration. The above-mentioned special conditions apply to specialized clinics and other public health care facilities.

	Membership type	One-time admission fee	Yearly subscription
	Supporting membership (minimum contributions): Natural persons Legal entities*.		50,- € 500,- €
	Associate membership: - Specialized clinics and other public health care facilities  - other research institutions and associations as well as legal entities under public and private law*. < 50 employees or < 5 Mio. € annual turnover < 50-150 employees or < 15 Mio. € annual turnover >150 employees or > 15 Mio. € annual turnover	500,-€  500,- € 1.500,- € 5.000,-€	500,-€  500,-€ 1.500,-€ 5.000,-€
	Full membership: - Specialized clinics and other public health care facilities  - other research institutions and associations as well as legal entities under public and private law*. < 50 employees or < 5 Mio. € annual turnover < 50-150 employees or < 15 Mio. € annual turnover > 150 employees or > 15 Mio. € annual turnover	1.000,- €  1.000,- € 3.000,- € 10.000,-€	1.000,- €  1.000,- € 3.000,- € 10.000,-€

* (Institutes and Chairs, Companies, Clubs and Associations)

§ 2 Due date

The admission fee is due for payment with the first annual fee. The annual fee is due in advance on January, 1st of a calendar year.

§ 3 Exceptions

In well-founded exceptional cases, the board may, upon written application, waiver or defer admission fees and/or contributions in whole or in part by resolution.

Partners and associated partners of the BMBF project consortium OR.NET (i.e. who are officially confirmed partners or associated partners of the OR.NET consortium until the end of the project on 30.4.2016) will be waived the admission fee and 50% of the annual fee for 2016 if they apply for membership by 31.12.2016.

§ 4 Entry into force

These Contribution Regulations entries into force on 02.03.2016.